

INTD 100: Essay #1

Whittier College

The underlying themes of the Big Short have to do with corruption, fraud, and opportunistic behavior. Choose 1-3 specific occurrences in the book and discuss the ramifications of such actions. If the actions are related, discuss how so. Also discuss the ethical nature of some of these practices. How should such actions be regulated and to what extent if at all should they be regulated? Use as much supporting data and info from the book or external sources to support your claims. The essay should be 3-5 pages as outlined in the syllabus. Make sure to cite any paraphrased passages or quote any passage used from the book in your paper. You can use the APA guidelines found here for citations: <http://writingcommons.org/index.php/open-text/writing-processes/format/apa-format/>
